Vote for Pentre Llifior Chapel

Please see below a communication received from the Circuit Administrator regarding Pentre Llifior. Please, please, if you feel we deserve to be in with a shot of winning, vote for us. It takes only a minute or two and it would mean so much to us.

“Have just received an email from Rev. Bob forwarded from Stephen Wigley: “Sacred Wales, in conjunction with the National Churches Trust, is launching a public vote to identify Wales' favourite place of worship. They hope that the competition will raise awareness of Wales' special ecclesiastical heritage, and the on-going importance of these beautiful buildings...”

The short list of 50 churches includes 3 Methodist:- Conway Rd., Cardiff; Trinity, Penarth; and PENTRE LLIFIOR, Welshpool Bro Hafren.

Please vote for your favourite church or chapel (hopefully Pentre Llifior!) and please encourage others to do likewise. The deadline is the 31st August.

To vote, go to http:// www. sacredwales.org.uk

WaterAid to benefit from "The Voice of Creation"

Pentre Llifior Methodist Chapel's recently held flower festival entitled "The Voice of Creation" has enabled the chapel to support WaterAid to the tune of over £400.

The charity, dedicated to improving access to safe water, sanitation and hygiene for some of the world's poorest people will receive the money later this week and Mandy Thomas, Treasurer of the Chapel said "We are delighted that this amount has been raised. The visitors were very generous in their giving and this will enable WaterAid in their efforts to bring the most basic of human needs - clean water - to those less fortunate."

The literature provided by WaterAid shows what might be bought with these donations ranging from as little as £15 which can enable one person access to safe water, improved hygiene and sanitation, on to £100 which could pay for the construction of one tube well in Nepal and £400 which could provide a tap stand in Bangladesh, as well as many other projects of varying costs in between.

A steady stream of visitors throughout also enjoyed munching in to bacon baps during the Saturday morning "Bacon Buddies" session with later callers over the weekend partaking of homemade cakes and drinks. Rev. Bill Rowell of Welshpool rounded off the event with a rousing praise service.

The Chapel is a registered Methodist Heritage site and is open on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons April - September inclusive. It also offers both car parking and toilet facilities (suitable for disabled access).

Further details follow our Facebook page – Pentre Llifior Methodist Chapel - telephone Anthea on 01686 651079, or e-mail tito@talktalk.net.

Good News Story! Dental Practice re-opens at Glansevern

Yvonne Wood, Dental Hygienist who has worked at the Practice in The Courtyard at Glansevern Hall for the last 12 years will be re-opening the practice in September.

Yvonne says 'I am delighted to re open the practice. We had an excellent reputation not only for the quality dental treatment but the first class care that the team provided to our patients.'

Yvonne says ' I missed the practice and all that it stood for so much that I have decided to re- open, and not only return it to its former glory but to revitalise the whole important concept of what contemporary hygiene and dentistry is all about in a much more dynamic way. Yvonne will also be joined by a like minded dentist with the same values and ethos to start at the practice in September.

'Prevention is better than cure'. Everyone knows this phrase but this concept has got to come back up to the forefront in dentistry. A preventive based practice and minimal intervention dentistry is our priority. The dental technology these days is wonderful and teeth can be restored in some brilliant ways, but the foundations of a healthy mouth have to be there first and foremost. Yvonne will be introducing new ideas, the latest equipment and materials into the practice to enable this.

Yvonne welcomes anyone who truly values their oral health and would like to try and keep their own natural teeth for life. It is possible, achievable and not only this, good oral health is essential to overall general health and well being.

Feel free to call to arrange a visit to meet the team or book an appointment.

Please call the practice to find out more on 01686 640777

NATIONAL GARDEN SCHEME LOCAL GARDENS OPEN FOR CHARITY

We have enjoyed a busy summer of garden openings with record numbers of visitors at many of our gardens. But, there are still many delights in the garden during the next few months. As well as Maesfron Hall at Trewen, which is open on 10th September, there are eight more gardens which open by arrangement giving you plenty of opportunity to enjoy autumn colours. You can discover more about our gardens and the charities supported by the National Garden Scheme at www.ngs.org.uk and by following us on Facebook and Twitter @powysngs.

Can you help us? Perhaps by supporting a garden owner by serving teas or selling plants. Or maybe you can help publicising our gardens by posting on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. In North Powys, we have about 40 gardens which open for us from Oswestry to Machynlleth down to Llandrindod Wells. If you are over 16 years old, have an enthusiasm for gardens, the natural world and fundraising, and have time to help in the summer, we would love to hear from you! If you are interested in joining us, please contact our North Powys County Organiser Susan Paynton: 01686 650531 or susan.paynton@ngs.org.uk
